The Library of Congress'

EARLY STATE RECORDS PROJECT converted from the original microfilm held by the Vincent C. Immel Law Library, Saint Louis University through the generous support of a grant from the Council on Library and Information Resources

This document contains handwritten text that may be partially illegible due to age, penmanship, or deterioration of the medium. LLMC has scanned the material in the same format and page order in which it is maintained in the source document taken from the collection "Records of the States of the United States of America, a microfilm compilation."

By His Excellency
Thomas Chittenden Esqr Governor. Captain General and Commander in Chief in and over the State of Vermont A PROCLAMATION.

The supreme Disposer of events. having been graciously pleased to order the providential occurrences of the past year. as to call loudly for the praise and adoration of individuals one of community at large - and as a public acknowledgment of the inestimable and encreasing bounties of a gracious and merciful GOD is at all times an incumbent. and ought to be a delightful duty to every national mind; I have therefore thought fit. by and with advice of my Council. and at the request of the General Assembly. to appoint Thursday the Twenty fifth day of November next, to be observed as a day of public Thanksgiving and Praise throughout this State and I do hereby earnestly recommend to all persons residing within the same strictly to observe said day: - that we may, with united hearts, render unfeigned praise to the munificent Bestower of every desirable gift - for the manifold mercies of the year past, both of a public and private nature; - that it has pleased him to preserve the health and lives of our citizens; - that he has, in his infinite mercy, crowned the labour of the husbandman with plentiful harvests; - that he has caused a spirit of unanimity to pervade all ranks of people among us - and preserved us from internal feuds and foreign invasions; - and humbly to implore a continuance of his aid and direction to the councils of this State; - that he would so order events, that the negotiations already begun, may succeed; - and that all obstacles may be removed which has heretofore prevented a union of this State with the United States.
- that he would bless the United States of America - succeed their Councils at home and negotiations abroad; preserve and strengthen their union; keep their allies, and render the ~~connection~~ connexion formed with them mutually beneficial; that he would grant wisdom and counsel to their Legislative executive and Judiciary departments;—that he would prolong and render eminently useful the life of the President of the United States;—and that he would establish and build up the ~~peaceable~~ peaceful Kingdom of God over nations throughout the world.

Given under my hand in the Council Chamber on Carleton this 20th day of October A.D 1790 and in the fourteenth year of ~~the Independence~~ our Independence

By his Excellency's Command

Thomas Hazen

Joseph Bouchette
Secretary

God save the King